THE ALPINE SUNSET

Saturday 30 September 2017

We are making a second visit to the Mid-Hants Railway (also known as the 'Watercress Line'), a preserved railway which features such harsh gradients that British Rail steam crews nicknamed it 'the Alps'. Sister DEMUs (Class 205 Hampshires) began traversing the line 60 years ago, before BR closure in 1975 and subsequent preservation and restoration of the Alton – Alresford stretch.

Our train will pick up at its usual stops to Tonbridge, then Redhill and Guildford to reach Alton, after which we will pass through the gate onto the Mid-Hants Railway for a run through to Alresford. We are scheduled to have over 4 hours there, during which time our train will make a further round trip to Alton (1240 dep Alresford, 1318–1342 Alton, 1416 arr Alresford). Your HDL ticket will be valid on all Mid-Hants Railway services for the day.

On the way home we will make extra reversals at Ascot and at Reading: this not only adds variety, but ensures that our Club Class passengers have a fair run at their evening meal, which includes at-table service with wine!

Hot & cold food and drinks are sold from our buffet car throughout the day at reasonable prices. Finalised timings are provided overleaf. In the event of queries, please ring our dedicated booking number 07501 478676, or email us at bookings@hastingsdiesels.co.uk.
