THE OLD CURIOSITY MYSTERY TOUR

A day excursion to Rochester and a meander round Kent

Saturday 3rd December 2011

Our pre-Christmas excursion takes us to the Medway Town of Rochester via London Bridge. On this day the annual Victorian Dickensian Christmas festivities will be taking place in Rochester where you can experience street entertainment, a market, readings, plus song and dance. There are also parades through Rochester and the magnificent surroundings of the cathedral and castle.

For those who prefer, you may remain on our train beyond Rochester for a mystery tour around some of the lines of the south-east. The mystery element is in the fact that due to engineering works our final route will not be known until nearer the time!

Our train will return to Rochester in the late afternoon before travelling back to Hastings via London Bridge.

There will be various tickets options on this trip. The fare will be £35 per seat for standard class return travel between any stations (including the mystery trip around Kent, if you wish); the discount price of £130 will apply for a bay of four seats in Standard Class trailer carriages only.

For those wishing to travel in Club Class the fare will be £60 per seat for the full mystery trip around Kent, or £50 if you are just travelling to/back from Rochester. This will generally include breakfast; a mid-day meal with wine for those taking our mystery trip around Kent, then a cream tea for all in Club Class after Rochester on our journey home. Club Class will not be available for those just travelling between Bromley South or London Bridge and Rochester.

The usual £5 supplement per seat will apply to ensure travel in the power car in either Standard or Club Class accommodation. These seats are limited in number.

Our train has a well stocked Buffet Car, and a selection of hot and cold snacks and drinks will be available at reasonable prices throughout times of travel.
