A CANTERBURY TRAIL

A Day Excursion to Rochester, Canterbury and the Dungeness branch

Saturday 24th November 2012

This year our Christmas excursion is running a week earlier than has become customary due to engineering works. This will include the majority of main lines in Kent, plus the popular branch line to Dungeness, usually used only by freight trains to/from the nuclear power station.

Our route will take us via our normal pick up points to Bromley South before we head for our London pick up; this time it will unusually be at the newly rebuilt Blackfriars station. On leaving London we will embark on a tour of Kent, first calling at Rochester (though a week too early for the Dickens Festival) to allow at least five hours in this historic Medway town for those who wish to leave our train here. We then travel via the Sheerness branch line and Faversham to our next stop at Canterbury East; here there will be several hours for those wishing to visit the shops, or wander around this interesting cathedral city. For those wishing to enjoy our full tour of Kent we will then head off via Dover, Shakespeare Tunnels, Folkestone and Ashford to take a rare opportunity to travel the branch line down to Dungeness.

Our return journey will be via Ashford, first calling at Canterbury West to pick up, then continuing via Minster, Ramsgate, Margate, Herne Bay, Faversham and Sittingbourne before we pick up those who decided to spend their time at at Rochester. We then head for home, calling in London again at Blackfriars and the same stations as on our outward run.

Our train has a well stocked Buffet Car, and a selection of hot and cold food and drinks will be available at reasonable prices throughout the day.

Included in the Club Class fare are food and drinks throughout both journeys, and an evening meal with wine will be served on our way home. Why not spoil yourself?
